Everything is Energy Show Topics for Episode #500 09/24/15:

- Thank you for your support as we host this 500th episode of our Show!
- All discussions of energetic imbalances reference certain frequencies an imbalance may be similar to. A frequency is NOT the actual disease.
- Newly revealed Hereditary imbalances added to the AIM database.
- Stephen's tribute to a true Original, Yogi Berra.
- Discussion of how prevalent Rickettsial Hereditary imbalances are.
- Discussion of how imbalances layer and how they can and do remain "hidden" until something shifts, as discussed on page 141 in Sanctuary.
- Stephen's energetic testing is extremely thorough, yet he cannot issue "guarantees" that anyone will self-heal all of their imbalances, nor that they have already done so.
- When we say someone has "the frequency" of something, say for example MS, that is a "known" frequency. But there are many, many frequencies in the AIM database that have a component similar to the frequency of MS. Nothing is as simple as having one imbalance behind it. You can't get to the bottom of the barrel without clearing out the layers covering that bottom.
- How AIM has expanded over the years and how the discovery of unknown Prion frequencies impacted that.

- What happens when you have no areas of energetic weakness, whether a baby born to "AIM parents", or an adult on AIM long enough to have healed all of their hereditary imbalances? Maybe our 1000th episode of the E is E Show will find us a little closer to the answer.
- Another quote "There are some people who, if they don't already know, you can't tell 'em." - Yogi Berra

Newly Revealed Hereditary Frequency Update As of September 24, 2015

This week there were three new Hereditary frequencies revealed to us.

The first new Hereditary frequency 8744 was revealed to us and added to the AIM Program on September 21, 2015. This frequency is believed to function within the energetic orbs of the Muscles, Joints, Lungs, Respiratory System, Digestive Tract, Stomach and Skin or wherever it is in you if you have it. It may manifest itself through the unresolved emotional etiologic frequency of: Discontentment.

The second new Hereditary frequency 8754 was revealed to us and added to the AIM Program on September 21, 2015. This frequency is believed to function within the energetic orbs of the Bladder, Kidneys, Urinary Tract, Low Back, Hip Joints, Brain and Skin or wherever it is in you if you have it. It may manifest itself through the unresolved emotional etiologic frequency of: Over Aggressiveness.

The third new Hereditary frequency 8764 was revealed to us and added to the AIM Program on September 22, 2015. This frequency is believed to function within the energetic orbs of the Lungs, Respiratory System, Muscles, Joints, Throat, Sinuses, Skin, Heart, Digestive Tract, Stomach and Pancreas or wherever it is in you if you have it.

It may manifest itself through the unresolved emotional etiologic frequency of: Irritability.

Here is the update on past frequencies that were revealed and added to the AIM Program last week:

8714, 8724 & 8734 We believe have balanced in all those AIM Participants who were clearing them.

Regarding the frequencies that have cleared, we clarify: "We cannot say with certainty or accuracy that they have cleared in all, because we cannot check all. Additionally, some heal more slowly because of underlying energetic weakness, such as the frequency of parasites."

REMINDER: Although the frequencies have balanced in those who are positive for them, we may have to allow our physical being to strengthen to notice the positive effects.

Rebecca from Virginia

For 23 years of my life, I have lived with cerebral palsy, which I was born with. I was also born blind, but regained vision after 3 days. At age four, fever left me deaf. Ten years later at the age of 14, I went into surgery for the cochlear implant, which improved my hearing.

Since I was put on the tray in the beginning of August 2007, I have experienced many changes in the sense of cerebral palsy. You've got to be glad EMC² has a frequency for cerebral palsy, because the Western style of medicine has not figured out how to cure such a thing. (Speaking of curing, I know EMC² does not do that, however it helps you heal yourself.)

After a few weeks of being on the tray I became more confident because I was the one healing myself. The process took about two months beginning in November. By the middle of December, I was able to walk more stabilized than I used to and sometimes took off my leg brace because it was useless. I also gained some sensation in the left side of my face, which I had never had before. My left eye began to widen, as it had always looked smaller.

By April of 2008, I found no need to wear a brace for stabilization and my left foot went from being dragged to walking pretty normally for one who does not have cerebral palsy. I am even planning to give away the brace.

One time, I tripped on the stairs and for the first time in my life, felt the scrape that hurt my left knee so much. My facilitator also noted that I had a higher pitch to my voice and that I was standing more upright.

Nowadays I think the nerves have finally straightened thus, I can fumble down the stairs with ease, no brace on, although the nerves have not completely straightened out. Also, my hand is beginning to calm down, I guess a sign that the nerves in my arm are straightening out too. The arm however continues to spasm. My left eye seems to open wider than it used to. My primary detox agent is either a cough that sounds like I'm choking or a sneeze. I think my hearing is better too, because sometimes I can hear people talking farther than I use to.

Since I have been on the tray, I feel that I have control of my health. It helps me know that I am doing the healing myself, rather than someone else taking care of my health. There is less stress, more understanding of energy, and I feel like I can help other people who are at low levels of consciousness. I haven't had many major sick bed stories since I got on the tray.
