Everything is Energy Show Topics for Episode #479 04/23/15:

- All discussions of energetic imbalances reference certain frequencies an imbalance may be similar to. A frequency is NOT the actual disease.
- Newly revealed Hereditary imbalances added to the AIM database.
- Medical diagnosis versus healing: What is the "spiritual technology" of the one in 10 who heals a "big deal" that 9 others don't heal? That's what we're doing here, working on the biggest stuff in life.
- Can we take in all this information about "new" frequencies, and not get wrapped up in what we have or don't have, feel or don't feel? We are healing on all levels.
- Referenced page 141 in Sanctuary regarding how we perceive imbalances, and how Stephen can only report what he finds at the time of a recheck.
- Fundamentals of life are spiritual; we must perceive and internalize them. There is nothing new to be learned - we just stopped playing. We are still kids but with judgments piled on top. Find someplace within where you are capable of joy, for joy itself.

Newly Revealed Hereditary Frequency Update As of April 23, 2015

This week there were four new Hereditary frequencies revealed to us.

The first new Hereditary frequency 8554 was revealed to us and added to the AIM Program on April 20, 2015. This frequency is believed to function within the energetic orbs of the Spine, Muscles, Joints, Lungs, Respiratory System, Throat, Sinuses and Heart.

It may manifest itself through the unresolved emotional etiologic frequency of: Dissatisfaction.

The second new Hereditary frequency 8564 was revealed to us and added to the AIM Program on April 20, 2015. This frequency is believed to function within the energetic orbs of the Lymph Glands, Lungs, Bladder, Urinary Tract and Kidneys.

It may manifest itself through the unresolved emotional etiologic frequency of: Fixations.

The third new Hereditary frequency 8515 was revealed to us and added to the AIM Program on April 20, 2015. This frequency is believed to function within the energetic orbs of the Lungs, Respiratory System, Digestive Tract, Skin and Brain.

It may manifest itself through the unresolved emotional etiologic frequency of: Irritability.

The fourth new Hereditary frequency 8525 was revealed to us and added to the AIM Program on April 21, 2015. This frequency is believed to function within the energetic orbs of the Skin, Lungs, Respiratory System, Spine, Low Back and Hip Joints.

It may manifest itself through the unresolved emotional etiologic frequency of: Impatience.

Here is the update on past frequencies that were revealed and added to the AIM Program last week:

8563, 8514, 8524, 8534 & 8544 We believe have balanced in all those AIM Participants who were clearing them.

Regarding the frequencies that have cleared, we clarify: "We cannot say with certainty or accuracy that they have cleared in all, because we cannot check all. Additionally, some heal more slowly because of underlying energetic weakness, such as the frequency of parasites."

REMINDER: Although the frequencies have balanced in those who are positive for them, we may have to allow our physical being to strengthen to notice the positive effects.

Michelle from New Zealand

The first change I noticed took place in my relationship with my mother. We have always had a close but strained relationship. Out of nowhere, instead of feeling the usual guilt ridden obligation to call her so as to avoid derogatory comments to my faithfulness and devotion as a daughter, I actually had a true authentic desire to stay in touch. In addition, I found that we could discuss everything and anything without having to worry about saying something that would offend the other. Furthermore, when discussing past traumas between us, the conversation never deterred into a place of blame or resentment, instead we were both capable of sharing our perspective in a constructive, detached and healthy way. For me this was so unexpected, something I had long ago given up on and just accepted. I am thrilled to have discovered a friend with whom I have so much in common.

I especially found fascinating the de-layering process in self-healing with the AIM Program. For example when healing fatigue and depression I first really saw how much anxiety I have been saturated in. Once the anxiety cleared I became aware of how much energy I had spent trying to please people. In every area from relationships to career, I had spent so much time trying to fulfill their expectations of me.

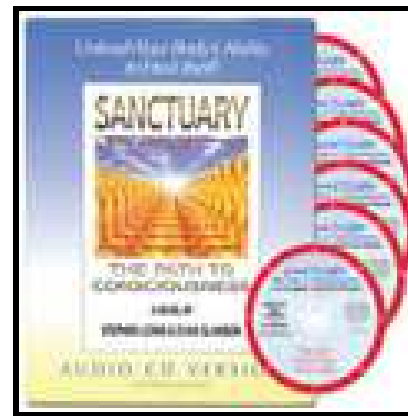

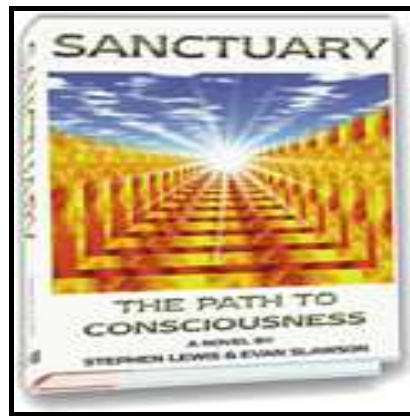

Next came extreme shame and guilt and when I thought it could not get any worse I experienced and saw the root layer; a feeling of complete meaninglessness and lack of life purpose. It was then that I saw the whole picture and it all began to make sense. For whatever reason I had responded to a life situation with a belief that life for me had no meaning and that I had no life purpose. To this I reacted in shame and then to deal with the shame I tried to at least fulfill other people's sense of purpose to cover my lack of it. It was of course impossible to please them, I constantly felt I was failing and letting someone down, and anxiety followed.

This process brought me so much insight into the human psyche. As a result I have gained so much compassion for myself and for people around me. I find myself really seeing people and their complexity with a loving compassion and understanding for their plight without judgment or the feeling that they should just get it right or try harder. I notice that pain and suffering are really just a result of not being connected to the whole.

Along with moving through all these layers, I have witnessed my digestion issues completely transform, my craving for sugar disappear, my intuitive ability develop to the point where I actually receive clips and pictures of the past lives that lie behind the core layers and the list goes on. I am forever grateful to everyone at EMC² for making the AIM Program available to the public. My life is becoming a dream come true. Thank you.
